Good Eastern Handicap Horse Was All Out to Win the New Year's Feature.

FRONTENAC WON BY HIMSELF.

Gniy Successful Favorite of the Day Galloped Over Such Good Sprinters as Poseur and Jake Greenberg.

There was a lot of gensip over the betting on Lady Fonse in the last race. She opened favorite at 7 to 5, but was rapidly beosted up until 4 to 1 was touched. She was being played all this time, and the betting looked so had that the ring suspended business for a time to have fun over it. Steve L'Hommedieu, the first to start the boosting in the opening, finally put up to 16 to 1 on his slate, and began to yell to call attention to it. This brought out other foolish prices, at which, of course, no money was taken.

Lady Fonse did not finish in the money, but she was a keen contender all the Lady Pouse did not finish in the money, but she was a keen contender all the way, and was only beaten in the last thirty yards. The winner turned up in Lee King, who had a feather on his back, was completely out of the early pace, and then ran over his field in the stretch.

Sponse Cake was best of an indifferent lot in the first race, winning easily from Jake Sarders, the favorite. Mr. Barnaby, a mag that raced in the cheapest races around St. Louis, was third.

Twennlow took the second by virtue of Ojibway's poor getaway from the barrier. With an even break he would have weneasily. The winner, which was heavily played at a long price, won by a nose.

FRONTENAC SAVED THE TALENT.

Frontenae, the only winning favorite of the day, beat a good field of sprinters in the third race. He won by two lengths from Poseur, Jake Greenberg beating Mayor Johnson a nose for the show money.

Quite a killing was made on Australina in the fifth race. She was very heavily played, and, after being outrun in the early part, came fast in the stretch and less Lady Draper, a length and a half. Vestry, the favorite, found the route too far and finished an indifferent third.

Ideal Weather and Fast Track Contribute to the Excellent Sport at the New Orleans Course.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New Orleans, Dec. 31.-Garnish won the New Year's Handicap by half a length from Miss Betty.

This was an ideal winter racing holiday.

The weather had moderated to a point that made attendance at the track very enjoyable, and, with a fast track and excellent programme, there was scarcely anything left to be desired. A crowd that rivaled that of Christmas live put in appearance at the Pair Grounds.

The New Year's Handicap, originally de signed for horses just turned their 3-yearold form, fell short of its purpose in this respect, but it was a fitting feature nev-

FIRST BUILDING TO BE RAZED.

Work of Wrecking Horticulture Palace to Begin To-Morrow.

tures of the World's Fair will begin tomorrow. The Palace of Horticulture will be turned over to the wreckers to-morrow

This will be the first of the exhibit structures to be razed. All of the exhibits have been removed and the wrecking company promises to demonstrate some things in the science of destruction in its demolition. Within a fortnight, it is expected, the building practically will be laid low.

The Palace of Agriculture, adjoining the Horticulture building, probably will be the next to follow. About 89 per cent of the exhibits in this building have been removed, and the remaining exhibits have removed, and the remaining exhibits have been packed and are ready for shipment

Twins for New Year's Gift. Twin girl bables were the New Year's gift the stork brought to Morris Boorstin, the head janitor of the World's Fair. The double blessing came to the Boorstin family at No. 3629 Magazine screet Friday morning and Morris, who is popular at the Administration building because of his readiness to accommodate all of the employes, was kept busy all day acknowledging congratulations.

POLICE ROUND UP GANG OF SUPPOSED THIEVES.

Men Arrested Are Suspected of Heing Connected With Recent Burgiaries and Hold-Ups in Fourth District.

The police of the Fourth District believe that they have arrested the men who have been committing the burglaries and hold-ups in that district in the last few weeks. Not only do they think that they have rounded up the thieves, but that in doing so they prevented a great deal of burglary, which was expected last night

The arrests were made by Special Officers Smyth and Lardner, and the men were placed in the holdover for the Chief. They are all well-known police characters

They are all well-known police characters and most of them have served time in the Workhouse, the police say.

Albert Trudell, one of the men arrested with the "gang," had in his possession when searched at the station a readed revolver, and the police think he was prepared for a "job" last night.

The arrests were made in two different places. Smyth and Lardner arrested several at Sixteenth and Biddle streets, while the others were brought in from Third and Carr streets.

Those in custody are Thomas McCarris. Lose Breed, Irwin Barron, Albert Trudes, John, alias "Dude," Hogan; Mike Norton, Eliward, alias "Nigger," Willis: Thomas McLaughlin, James Fleming, Lester Gussand Robert McKnight.

Martin Gillon was arrested later in the afternoon and is supposed to be one of the gang. He was brought in from Breadway and Morgan street.
